

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1890.
CITY AND COUNTY.

BRIEFLETS.

—Sunday was sunny.
—The municipal papers meet to-night.
—Mrs. Will Webster, of Ripon, is still visiting friends in the city.
—That rain has proved a labor saver to those who dislike to clean off their sidewalks.
—There was a slight brush on South Main street between some young men last night. No gore.
—Joshua Hoskins left to-day for Austin, Texas, where he is engaged in the sheep business with his brother.
—Look out for safe blowers. They had an opening at Stoughton last night in the safe of the mill office there.
—Miss Mattie Brace leaves to-morrow for Canada, for her health. Many friends here send her best wishes with her.
—It is a little "off," to say that the snow has gone where the woodbine twined—up the spout. A good deal of it has gone down the spout.
—Alex McAlpin was run in last night on complaint of Tom Gray, of whom he got a dish of oysters and skipped out without paying for it. The case was settled this afternoon.
—One hundred and eighty-five persons, partook of the sacrament in the First M. E. church yesterday morning. Sixty spoke in Love Feast. Rev. W. P. Stowe preached a spirited sermon in the evening.
—At the meeting of the Mutual Improvement Club this evening, Susie B. Drake, Libbie Golden, Mrs. E. B. Drake, C. A. Stearns, and Mr. Baletine were to participate. The study will be "Julius Caesar."
—An eccentric acting dog caused a shiver of sensationalism among those crossing Milwaukee street bridge early this morning, but he didn't prove to be mad. Old age, an empty stomach, and out door lodgings seemed to have affected him most.
—The carrier boys of the Green County Reformer had no occasion to blush, or hide their bundles on New Year's day, as their address is one of the neatest which has reached us. The Reformer has a right to feel proud of the production. It's a good one.
—O. C. Ellis, late foreman at the shoe factory, has secured a position as one of the special agents employed by the McKee Sewing Machine Association, of Boston, to look after their machine scattered throughout the shoe factories of the country. He will make his headquarters with the Cincinnati branch, and will occasionally visit Janesville in pursuance of his duties. The position is a good one, and he is in all ways well fitted to fill it. He left the city last Friday for Cincinnati.
—This morning's mail was unusually heavy, and occupied more than the usual time in distribution. The time required for handling the mails now is longer than before the new order was issued, by which it becomes necessary to stamp on the back of each letter the day and hour at which it was received here. This work takes time and is bothersome. The postoffice folk are not the only ones who are bothered by it though. An absent minded husband can no longer carry a letter around in his pocket for a week or so, and then tell his wife he has just got it. The date and hour on the back is a bothersome giveaway to all such fellows, and they have to own up to the truth.

TRAVELERS, STOP AT THE ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK.

The stockholders of the Rock County Agricultural Society met this afternoon and decided to pay in full the prizes offered to the Janesville Guards and Oshkosh Guards, and competed for at the last Fair. It was also decided to pay all premiums in full.

THE WEATHER.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVANSON, DRUGGISTS.
The thermometer at 6 o'clock last night stood at 37 degrees above; at 1 o'clock a m., to-day at 35 above; at 7 o'clock a m., at 33 degrees above, and at 1 o'clock p. m., at 41 degrees above. Cloudy and light rain.
The indications to-day are rising followed by stationary or falling barometer, northeast to southeast winds, colder followed by clear or partly cloudy weather.

Sensible Canadian.

Mr. Gadbois, of Brockville, Canada, after being cured of a prostrating malarial disease contracted in Texas, by means of Warner's Safe Pills and Safe Bitters, wrote to us: "I shall never travel in that climate without your Safe Pills and Safe Bitters as a part of my outfit."

WEEK OF PRAYER.

This being the week of prayer, the different Evangelical churches hold a union prayer meeting in the prayer meeting room of the Baptist church, from 3 to 4 o'clock every afternoon during the week, led as follows:
Monday—Rev. F. L. Chappell.
Tuesday—Rev. H. Sewell.
Wednesday—Rev. T. P. Sawin.
Thursday—Rev. H. Fayville.
Friday—Rev. D. B. Jackson.
Saturday—All are cordially invited.

BURLESQUE PINAFORÉ.

To-morrow evening at the Opera house the Rentz-Santley Novelty Company will appear with a variety of music, mirth and minstrelsy. The Free Press of London, Canada, says:
The Rentz-Santley Novelty Troupe gave their promised entertainment in Holman Opera house, last night, on which occasion there was a great gain. The performance throughout was excellent, and presented nothing unchangeable. The negro comedy was far above the average and extremely laughable. The evening closed with an amusing burlesque of "Pinafore." Everybody left well pleased with the show.

AWAY TO MADISON.

This morning the special train for Madison received its load of martial men and military trappings, and steamed off for the inauguration doings. The Sheboygan and Oshkosh Guards preferring to run down to Janesville rather than hang about Milton, were on the train, and there was a merry round of greetings exchanged between them and the Janesville Guards and Lower City Band. A number of our citizens also boarded the train, to take in the great doings at the capital. All started off in great glee, and the day had quite a holiday send-off.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9, 1879.

Messrs. MORGAN & ALLEN, 59 John St., New York City:

Gentlemen:—I am happy to inform you that I am now entirely well, having used only one bottle of "Constitution Water."

Yours truly,
BUDD DOBLER.

Ask your druggist for it.

ASTRANGE BREAK.

Mr. Cunningham, who was so seriously injured in the railroad accident near Jackson, Mich., and who has not yet been able to be removed to his home in this city, has met with another mishap, which will still further add to his sufferings, and delay his return. His broken arm seemed to be mending all right, but there was one spot which was peculiarly tender, and sensitive to the touch. As the nurse was rubbing the arm the other day, this spot was accidentally touched, causing such pain that Mr. Cunningham jerked the arm back quickly, and in doing so it was broken in a fresh place. This strange accident will probably delay his return for a month at least. Mrs. Cunningham is now with her husband, but expects to return this week.

SATURDAY NIGHT BURGLARY.

Saturday night burglars gained an entrance into Wylor's wine house by taking out a pane of glass in a rear window. They then unlocked the back door, and took the key and put it in the lock of the front door so as to prevent Mr. Wylor from unlocking the door should he hear any noise and try to do so. They then helped themselves to about 300 cigars, and an unknown quantity of liquors. Champagne baskets were broken open, and the bottled wine seized upon, but in such a large stock as he has in his cellar, it is impossible to tell how much was taken, but probably thirty to fifty bottles. Mr. Wylor's friends yesterday wanted to make up a purse to make good his loss, but he said he could stand it, and declined with thanks the generous offer. The only wonder is that the thieves did not take more, when there was so much stock lying there to tempt them. They sought for cash also, but got only eleven cents.

It can almost be asserted that St. Jacobs Oil, was a wonder. Shortly before the New Year, when I visited my family in Milwaukee, I found my son Edward, a little more than ten years old, very sick. He suffered with Rheumatism, and so terribly that he was perfectly stiff in his limbs, could not possibly walk, and had to be carried from place to place. At once I sent for some St. Jacobs Oil, used it according to directions, and in a few days could see evidence of considerable improvement. On the tenth of this month I again visited my family and was astonished to find him well and hearty. He once more has fresh color in his face and can go to school again. Whenever the old trouble threatens to return, relief is immediately secured by the use of the celebrated St. Jacobs Oil. From sheer joy over this result I cannot withhold recommending St. Jacobs Oil to suffering humanity as a true benefactor.

DOING DUTY.

Last evening at Trinity Episcopal church Rev. Theodore Hudson, of Sauk Centre, Minn., preached a sermon on "Christian Duty," his text being—"My Meat is to do the Will of Him that Sent Me." He showed the necessity of placing greater importance on the "ought" and "ought not" of life. There was too much of an inclination to do things for the gratification of appetites or passions, and because of a desire to do them, rather than from any sense of duty. The preachers in their work were often led astray, and sought to fill their churches by sensationalism rather than by doing that individual work which Christ did, and the attendants upon services often failed to have the highest motive in worship. There was needed in preacher and people a strengthening of the sense of duty. In performing life's work there was too much drawing of inspiration from earthly motives rather than drawing, as Christ did, from the heavenly ones.

There was much to be gained by acting in accordance with a sense of duty. It strengthened and developed the moral character. Acting to gratify passion or appetite had no such effect. Christ in doing the will of his Father, found it to be meat, food, from which strength was gained, and so with man. The performance of Christian duty was a spiritual food, from which strength could be derived.

There was a peace which came from the performance of duty which was equalled by no other joy of life. The satisfaction of having done what God desired, is one which all could experience. The most blessed promises were held out to be fulfilled in the next world, but the happy results of doing duty were not confined to the next world. Much of the fruitage was gathered here, and many of the joys of reward followed immediately upon the steps of action here.

The sermon was thoughtful and clearly worded, and was eagerly listened to. Mr. Hudson has many friends here, and they were indeed glad to have this opportunity of hearing him.

A NEW FACTORY.

Another shoe factory is to be added to the manufacturing enterprises of the city. Mr. Evan Thomas and Mr. George Griffith are the owners and organizers. Mr. Thomas is already well known here in connection with the boot and shoe business. Mr. Griffith has for a year past been cutter for the Wisconsin Shoe Company's factory. Previous to that he was for five years connected with Miller's successful factory in Racine, and before that was for years connected with some of the largest factories in England. He is a thoroughly practical and widely experienced man, and knows the wants of the business thoroughly. Mr. Thomas will attend to the financial part of the enterprise, and Mr. Griffith will superintend the mechanical part. The factory is to be located in the rear of Mr. Thomas' store, and though the room is small, yet the machinery is to be arranged so that a large amount of work can be produced, and expenses cut down to the minimum point. The machinery has already been purchased, and with the dies, etc., will cost about $3,000. Some of it is expected to arrive to-day, and all will be in place and running inside of two weeks. It is the intention to employ on the start about thirteen hands, and produce from 30 to 35 pairs of shoes daily. This will be increased as rapidly as possible, but it is the aim of the managers to proceed cautiously, and grow surely on a sound foundation.

The machinery purchased is of the latest and best, and it is the intention to make fine shoes only, and to give special attention to quality of material and manner of making. There will be at first only "one team" employed, as it is known to the trade, but the machinery and room will be so arranged, as to rapidly increase their force, as the business warrants. The enterprise is evidently in good hands, and within a short time will be in practical working shape, when the work will speak for itself. That the new factory may prove a permanent and growing success, as the wish of all who are interested in the further prosperity of the city.

FOOTVILLE.

The donation for the benefit of the Rev. Mr. Hall, which was held at the Grove parsonage on Thursday evening, January 1st, was a success in every particular. A good crowd was in attendance, and all enjoyed themselves. About $60 was realized, which is not a bad sum in itself.

Miss Mattie and C. W. Owen, who have with them relatives in the East, are to be again, having arrived last Friday afternoon. They report a very pleasant visit. The concert which was to have been held last Sabbath evening at the Methodist church, was, on account of the stormy weather, again postponed until Sunday evening, January 11th. If the weather is favorable a good crowd may be expected.

We noticed quite a number of typographical errors in our communication, last week. Evidently our lithography was at fault.

A. F. Snyder has been in town the past week, there being no school.

Royal has stolen a march on us this time, but if he will set 'em up, it will be all right. He was married on Christmas, and never did it.

Mr. John Wells received a nice Christmas present in the shape of a huge white jack rabbit. The animal was killed by Richard West, in Dakota, and was sent by him to Mr. Wells. Dr. Braden is doing the job of mounting it.

Joe Eastman is at present confined to the house with influenza.

Miss Hope Lyman has left us for a short visit to her home at Oconomowoc.

Ira Fisher recovered his horse last Thursday. He found it between Alton and Beloit, where it had been shut up for several days.

Miss Soule, of Milton, is here at present, a guest of Rev. Richardson and lady.

Members of the M. E. choir are earnestly requested to be in attendance at the next meeting, which will be held at W. J. Owen's on Saturday evening.

An Elegant Preparation designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative, is found in Parker's Hair Balm. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to its original youthful color and beauty. Fading hair is immediately checked by its use, and it produces a growth of beautiful young hair, soft, glossy and luxuriant, that surprises everyone. These properties add to its exquisite perfume and purity of composition, render it the growing favorite at the toilet table everywhere. Sold in large bottles at only 50 cents and $1.00 by all first-class druggists.

CITY NOTICES.

THE REASON WHY.—Mr. Fellows, in his "Medical Monthly," gives reasons for the peculiar action of his Hypophosphites in the cure of diseases, which seems to be borne out by facts. From tonic action of the Sympathetic Nerves all the Organic Murcures are strengthened and the patient overcomes his malady simply, pleasantly and rapidly.
